8) WHAT ARE THE FACTUAL AND LEGAL BASES FOR PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS AND DEFENDANT'S DEFENSES (INCLUDE COUNTERCLAIMS & CROSSCLAIMS, IF APPLICABLE)?

Plaintiff has brought claims against all Defendants for false arrest, malicious prosecution, fabrication of evidence, and failure to intervene. Following a Motion to Dismiss filed by Defendants Rensselaer County and Dr. Sikirica, Plaintiff's failure to intervene claim was dismissed as against the Rensselaer County Defendants.

The factual basis for Plaintiff's claims are as follows:

On October 2, 2015, Plaintiff Michael Davis was arrested for the murder of his girlfriend's 2 year and seven month old daughter V.D.. On February 26, 2015, Plaintiff found V.D. unresponsive in her bed. Plaintiff alleges that he immediately tried to administer C.P.R. and called 911. Upon arrival, emergency personnel also administered C.P.R. V.D. remained unresponsive and was brought to St. Mary's Hospital where she was pronounced dead. Plaintiff was interrogated by the Defendant Troy Police Officers on February 26, 2015. On February 27, 2015, Defendant Dr. Sikirica performed an autopsy of V.D. in the presence of Troy Police Officers Ronald Fountain, Charles McDonald, and Danielle Coonrad. Thereafter, Plaintiff was again questioned by the City of Troy Police Officers. On August 15, 2015, Dr. Sikirica issued an autopsy report determining the cause of death to be hypovolemic shock due to large hemoperitoneum due to multiple lacerations of the liver with right rib fractures due to blunt force trauma and the manner of death to be homicide. The determination was based on a finding that V.D. had fractures of her 9th and 10th ribs resulting in lacerations to V.D.'s liver.

Plaintiff alleges that the conclusions in Dr. Sikirica's report were deliberately skewed based on discussions with the Defendant City of Troy Police Officers who had participated in the interrogation of Plaintiff and that Defendant Sikirica intentionally omitted from his report that emergency personnel, in addition to Plaintiff, administered C.P.R.

Plaintiff was prosecuted on manslaughter and acquitted of all charges on August 25, 2016.

Plaintiff has brought Monell claims against the City of Troy and Rensselaer County. Plaintiff alleges that the City of Troy has a de facto policy of engaging in unlawful collusion with the Rensselaer County Medical Examiner to create and/or manufacture false medical evidence. Plaintiff further alleges that both municipalities are liable for their inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising of its employees.

Defendants have each raised defenses of immunity and that there was probable cause for Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution.

As to the Defendants, Ronald Fountain and Charles McDonald

Both said Defendants will contend that the Plaintiff was indicted by a Grand Jury sitting in Rensselaer County which created a presumption that there was probable cause for the arrest and prosecution of the Plaintiff. Plaintiff will have the burden of overcoming this presumption.

Both said Defendants will contend that following said indictment the Plaintiff was arrested pursuant to a warrant of arrest valid on its face issued by a Court of competent jurisdiction and the arrest was thereby privileged.

Both said Defendants will contend that there was probable cause to arrest and prosecute the Plaintiff.

Both said Defendants will assert the affirmative defense that probable cause existed for the arrest and prosecution of the Plaintiff.

Both Defendants will contend that they are entitled to absolute immunity for any and all testimony they gave before the Grand Jury which indicted the Plaintiff and/or during the trial of the Plaintiff in the Rensselaer County Court.

Both Defendants will seek compensatory damages on their counterclaims against the Plaintiff based upon their contention that there is no basis in law or in fact for the claims made against them.

Factually, the Defendant, Charles McDonald did not testify before the Grand Jury which indicted the Plaintiff and did not testify at the trial of the Plaintiff in the Rensselaer County Court.

As to the Defendant, Danielle Coonrad

The Defendant, Danielle Coonrad was on the date of the death of the infant child, VD a patrolman employed by the Troy Police Department. She was called to the premises where the deceased child resided. Upon her arrival the child was unresponsive as was reported to this Defendant. While this Defendant was at the apartment, she had a brief conversation with the Plaintiff. He stated (orally) to Defendant: "I told her to go back to bed because it was too early. I went to get her up at 11:00 and she wouldn't wake up". Defendant replied: "Ok, but it's 1:30 now". Plaintiff then said: "Time must be flying then".

Defendant, Coonrad stayed at the apartment all afternoon to make sure it was and remained secured. She had nothing further to do with the police investigation except to look around the apartment and take note of a container containing pills which to her knowledge was irrelevant to the investigation. Defendant had no interaction with Dr. Michael Sikirica at all and was not present during the autopsy of the child. She did not initiate the prosecution of the Plaintiff or did she participate in his arrest. She did testify at trial concerning the above-referenced conversation with the Plaintiff.

This Defendant will contend as a defense that the Plaintiff was arrested pursuant to an arrest warrant valid on its face issued by the Rensselaer County Court.

This Defendant will contend as a defense that the Plaintiff was indicted by a Rensselaer County Grand Jury which created a presumption of probable cause and the burden of proof is on the Plaintiff to rebut this presumption.

This Defendant will contend that probable cause existed for the arrest and prosecution of the Plaintiff.

This Defendant will contend that she is entitled to absolute immunity for all testimony which she gave at the trial of the Plaintiff in the Rensselaer County Court.

This Defendant will contend that she is entitled to qualified immunity as to all claims made against her.

This Defendant will seek compensatory damages on her counterclaim based upon her contention that there was no basis in law or in fact for the claims made against her.

a. Whether the Defendant, Ronald Fountain is entitled to absolute immunity for his testimony before the Grand Jury and at the trial of the Plaintiff in the Rensselaer County Court.

b. Whether the Defendant, Danielle Coonradt is entitled to absolute immunity for her testimony at the trial of the Plaintiff in the Rensselaer County Court.

c. Whether the Defendants, Fountain, McDonald and Coonradt are entitled to qualified immunity.

d. Whether the Defendant, McDonald indicated or continued the prosecution of the Plaintiff.

e. Whether the Defendant, Coonradt initiated or continued the prosecution of the Plaintiff.

f. Whether the Defendants, Fountain, McDonald, and Coonradt conspired with the Defendant, Michael Sikirica to violate Plaintiff's rights.

g. Whether the Defendants, County of Rensselaer and City of Troy have unconstitutional policies and practices which resulted in the Plaintiff's arrest and prosecution and denied to Plaintiff of his right to a fair trial.

10. CAN THE ISSUES IN LITIGATION BE NARROWED BY AGREEMENT OR BY MOTIONS? ARE THERE DISPOSITIVE OR PARTIALLY DISPOSITIVE ISSUES APPROPRIATE FOR DECISION ON MOTION

It is expected that Summary Judgment Motions will be filed at the conclusion of discovery.

11. WHAT SPECIFIC RELIEF DO THE PARTIES SEEK? WHAT ARE THE DAMAGES SOUGHT?

The Defendants, City of Troy, Ronald Fountain, Charles McDonald, and Danielle Coonradt seek an undisclosed amount of compensatory relief, along with attorneys' fees, disbursements and costs on their counterclaims.

Pursuant to County Law Section 677 the Rensselaer County Medical Examiner's file can only be released to the District Attorney, spouse or next of kin of the decedent.
